

I am opposed to increasing the limits of Broadcast Ownership.
Having only a few (corporate) sources of information is dangerous to our (or any) democracy. Media diversity is needed to inform the citizens most completely and accurately so we can make well educated decisions on how to run this great country.